Robert Beckelman to Present at CREDA New Jersey's Program "New Jersey CRE Under the Microscope: What's Shaping New Jersey Development?"

12/02/26

Wilentz Shareholder Robert Beckelman will participate in a panel discussion at the New Jersey Commercial Real Estate Development Association's (CREDA) upcoming seminar. The program will feature discussions on public perceptions and policy developments surrounding commercial real estate in New Jersey.

Mr. Beckelman will present during the first panel on Payment in Lieu of Taxes (PILOT) agreements. The discussion will explore the current landscape of PILOT agreements in New Jersey, focusing on their role in economic growth as well as the benefits and challenges they present.

Attendees will gain valuable insights and a better understanding of recent developments within the commercial real estate industry.
