Judge Robert J. Mega to Present at NJSBA Business and Commercial Litigation Program

12/03/26

Hon. Robert J. Mega, P.J.Ch. (Ret.), Of Counsel at Wilentz, Goldman & Spitzer, P.A., will participate in the New Jersey State Bar Association's (NJSBA) upcoming program addressing recent developments and procedural strategies in business and commercial litigation.

The program will examine significant recent decisions from New Jersey state and federal courts and their impact on commercial litigation strategies. Attendees will also gain insight into specialized procedural challenges, including navigating New Jersey's Complex Business Litigation Program, litigating commercial matters before judges without a commercial background, and addressing the ethical implications of artificial intelligence in legal practice. Judge Mega will join a panel discussion on “Special Masters/Adjudicators in State and Federal Court.”
