

Wilentz Shareholder David M. Wildstein Receives 2019 David Pavlovsky Service to the Bar Award from Middlesex County Bar Foundation

05/23/19

Wilentz Shareholder David M. Wildstein was honored on May 22 with the David Pavlovsky Service to the Bar Award by the Middlesex County Bar Foundation at their 105th Annual Installation of Officers and Trustees Dinner, in recognition of his “continuous outstanding contributions and service to the Middlesex County Bar Association” and the dedication “to his family, his profession, his community and the Association.” Created in honor of the late David Pavlovsky, an active member of the Bar Association, the award is presented each year to a lawyer who carries on David’s commitment to service and represents the best of the Middlesex County Bar Association.

At Wilentz, Mr. Wildstein built the firm’s Family Law practice, representing high net worth clients involved in divorce and custody proceedings. For over 40 years, Mr. Wildstein has focused his practice on family law and has tirelessly helped each of his clients navigate the economic and emotional challenges of matrimonial disputes.
