David Stein to Present at New Jersey State Bar Association Mid-Year Meeting

10/09/17

David Stein will present at the New Jersey State Bar Association mid-year meeting. The presentation, entitled "Global Ghost Town – Creative Land Use Solutions When Shopping Centers Die," will focus on the reasons why the need for physical retail space is declining while many shopping centers are going out of business. Mr. Stein, together with land use attorneys, planners and developers, will also discuss the legal issues surrounding the takeover of defunct shopping centers by schools, community groups and religious institutions.
