Wilentz Attorneys to Present at Rutgers University Ernest Mario School of Pharmacy on New Opioid Laws

11/11/17

Angelo Cifaldi and Satish Poondi will present at Rutgers University Ernest Mario School of Pharmacy's "Law & Ethics Update for Pharmacists: Pharmacists' Roles & Responsibilities in Curbing Prescription Drug Abuse," which will analyze both New Jersey and Federal laws related to controlled dangerous substances and prescription drug abuse.

Dean Emeritus Dr. John L. Colaizzi will present the ethical and professional responsibilities and challenges for pharmacists in preventing prescription drug abuse. Other topics of interest include: legal, ethical and professional principles in the aftermath of the opioid and prescription drug abuse epidemic; New Jersey regulations that impact the work of pharmacy technicians; options and responsibilities of pharmacists to encourage and facilitate safe medication disposal.
