

Todd E. Lehder and Jeffrey W. Cappola to Present Annual NJICLE Seminar on Commercial Real Estate Transactions

06/21/19

Wilentz Real Estate Co-Chair Todd E. Lehder will moderate and co-present "Commercial Real Estate Transactions: From Handshake to Closing" with Wilentz environmental attorney Jeffrey W. Cappola at the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education. Designed for attorneys who represent sellers, buyers, landlords, tenants, commercial real estate owners and developers, the program will provide an overview on how to navigate complex issues in commercial real estate transactions, including environmental, financing, leasing, insurance, title, and land use due diligence.

Mr. Lehder, who also serves as program coordinator, will discuss the negotiation or Purchase and Sale Agreements. Mr. Cappola will consider the environmental aspects of commercial real estate transactions, including initial due diligence and how to identify and manage risks.

This program has been approved by the Board on Continuing Legal Education of the Supreme Court of New Jersey for 7.6 hours of total CLE credit. Of these, 1.0 qualify as hours of credit for ethics/professionalism.
