Lynne M. Kizis to Present at Seton Hall Law Inaugural Women's Leadership Summit

03/07/20

Wilentz Shareholder and Mass Tort/Class Action Co-Chair Lynne M. Kizis will serve on the "Closing the Confidence Gap and Overcoming Impostor Syndrome" panel at the inaugural Women's Leadership Summit hosted by Seton Hall Law's Women's Leadership Advisory Committee. Ms. Kizis earned her law degree with Honors at Seton Hall Law in 1987.

The Summit will provide educational and networking opportunities to improve recruitment, retention and advancement of women law students and attorneys and increase the representation of women in leadership roles. The program has been approved for 5 NJ CLE credits, including 1 ethics/professionalism credit.
