

Tracy Armstrong to Present at American Telugu Association Annual International Women's Day Event

03/08/20

At the International Women's Day event hosted by the American Telugu Association of New Jersey, Wilentz employment law attorney Tracy Armstrong will provide an overview of significant employment law updates impacting employers. During the session "Women Empowerment and Leadership," Ms. Armstrong will discuss the New Jersey Equal Pay Act, the New Jersey Family Leave Act, the New Jersey Security and Financial Empowerment Act for victims of domestic violence, and anti-harassment training, among other topics.

The American Telugu Association is a national non-profit organization that regularly promotes literary, cultural, and educational programs for students, scientists, and professionals of Telugu origin to preserve their heritage. Each year, the organization hosts a series of conferences across the United States for International Women's Day to celebrate women from all walks of life and their achievements.
