

Samantha Stillo to Present Monmouth Bar Association CLE Webinar “Being a Young Lawyer in a COVID-19 World”

08/26/20

Wilentz business litigation attorney Samantha Stillo will join the virtual panel entitled “Being a Young Lawyer in a COVID-19 World,” produced by the Monmouth Bar Association Young Lawyers’ Committee. Ms. Stillo and the other panelists will discuss best practices for networking, balancing job responsibilities with working from home, and meeting the expectations of your employer and the courts during the global health crisis.

This program has been approved by the Board on Continuing Legal Education of the Supreme Court of New Jersey for 1.0 hours of total CLE credit.

Attorney

- Samantha Stillo

Practice

- Business and Commercial Litigation