

Lisa Gora Presents at the American Health Law Association’s “Fundamentals of Health Law” Conference in Chicago

11/09/21

Wilentz Corporate and Health Law attorney Lisa Gora will speak on “Representing Physicians and Physician Practices and Navigating Physician-Hospital Alignment and Integration Models including Private Equity Relationships” at the American Health Law Association’s 3-day “Fundamentals of Health Law 2021 Conference” in Chicago. The one-hour session will cover:

- General considerations in representing physicians
- The anatomy of a physician employment agreement and the salient provisions to understand
- State and federal regulatory issues
- Physician – hospital alignment and integration models,
- Common alignment mistakes
- Telehealth-use during the COVID- 19 pandemic and effects thereafter

Conference attendees may earn up to 20.5 credits (including 1.0 legal ethics) for a 60-minute state and 24.6 (including 1.2 legal ethics) for a 50-minute state. The actual number of credits may vary from state to state. On-demand sessions will be available to watch before the in-person event.

For more information and to register, visit the American Health Law Association.

Attorney

- Lisa Gora

Practices

- Corporate
- Health Law