Brian J. Molloy, Edward T. Kole, and Willard C. Shih to Present at NJICLE Webcast “Trial Advocacy Summer Institute”

07/14/22

Wilentz Chairman and General Counsel Brian J. Molloy, along with Wilentz Litigation Chair Edward T. Kole, and Shareholder Willard C. Shih, will join leading trial lawyers in the state to discuss key aspects of trial practice during the 2022 Trial Advocacy Summer Institute. The two-day webinar, hosted by the New Jersey State Bar Association Continuing Legal Education, is designed for trial attorneys and general practitioners to sharpen their skills in key aspects of civil and criminal trial practice.

The program agenda includes:

- Rule 104 Hearings
- Jury Selection/Trial Themes
- Opening Statements
- Direct & Cross-Examination
- Trial Ethics
- Criminal Trial Issues
- Utilizing Video Depositions at Trial and Use of Demonstrative Exhibits
- Expert Witnesses
- Closing Arguments

Presented in cooperation with the American College of Trial Lawyers, each program day has been approved by the Board on Continuing Legal Education of the Supreme Court of New Jersey for 6.7 hours of total CLE credit.
