

Wilentz Attorneys to Present at the NJSBA Fall Conference

11/21/22

Wilentz attorneys will present on topics including the civil litigation track and labor and employment track.

From 10:15am – 12:15pm

Wilentz Shareholder and Co-Chair of the Mass Tort/Class Action group, current Co-Chair of the NJAJ Mass Tort Section, and Past President of NJAJ, Lynne M. Kizis, to co-present “What to Expect in Civil Voir Dire and Strategies for Your Cases” seminar. The panel will discuss how the recent and proposed revisions to our jury selection process will affect how you try your cases.

Also from 10:15am – 12:15pm

Wilentz Shareholder, Co-Chair of the Employment Law group, and Cannabis attorney Tracy Armstrong, and Employment Law group Associate, Stephanie D. Gironda, to present “Are You High? – Representing Employers Who Suspect an Employee is Impaired by Cannabis” seminar. This seminar will review the current status of the law, including an employer’s options if they suspect an employee is impaired and also the rights of an employee who is accused of impairment. It will also look at the current status of the pending legislation and analyze the issues in current cases involving employee impairment.

Each program has been approved by the NJ, PA, and NY Board on Continuing Legal Education of the Supreme Court of New Jersey for 2.4 hours of total CLE credits.
