Wilentz Shareholder Tracy A. Armstrong to Present at the 41st Annual Autism Conference in Atlantic City

10/20/23

Wilentz Shareholder and Co-Chair of the Employment Law group, Tracy A. Armstrong, will present “What ABA Companies Need to Know About Employment Law” at the 41st Annual Autism Conference. The session will provide general information on relevant topics such as the classification of independent contractors versus contracted employees, contract non-compete clauses, protected versus paid leave time, and other issues employers may encounter. Participants will receive valuable information regarding employment law mandates, including clarification on the required components of an employee handbook.
