

Wilentz Shareholder Michael F. Schaff to Moderate NJICLE's Experiential Use of Generative Artificial Intelligence (AI) in Healthcare Program

01/15/24

Wilentz Shareholder Michael F. Schaff, co-chair of the Corporate, Health, and Cannabis law practice groups, Past Chair of the NJSBA Health Law Section, and NJSBA Trustee, will moderate the program entitled "Experiential Use of Generative AI in Healthcare." The program will review the difference between Generative Artificial Intelligence and Artificial Intelligence, and bring into focus the inherent risks and potential utility of generative artificial intelligence models.

This seminar marks the beginning of a series to provide insight to practitioners working in healthcare and other legal fields and attendees across the entire range of regulatory, transactional, litigators, in-house counsel, consultants, lobbyists, and those who provide compliance services.

The program agenda includes:

- Clarifying basic artificial intelligence terminology - What is it, what it is not
- Demonstration of statistical artificial intelligence versus the generative artificial intelligence products we see in the news. Discussion of effective and ineffective uses of these technologies.
- What will be the NST of artificial intelligence: A review of current regulations, the Presidential Executive Order and what we can expect in future AI regulation.
- Ethics with respect to the use of AI
- Q&A Section: What is coming in the future? Is all that has come before just hype? What is needed to make generative AI useful?
