

Take a Comprehensive Look at LLC's With NJICLE

06/20/24

Wilentz Shareholder Jason J. Krisza will co-present at the NJICLE's LLC's from A to Z seminar on June 20th.

In New Jersey, there are a total of 908,209 small businesses, making up 99.6% of all businesses in the state. Limited liability companies are often favored for their liability protection, flexibility, and tax advantages. For attorneys in the state, understanding LLCs is crucial given the significant number of small businesses and their owners.

Join a panel of experienced practitioners as they discuss the following subject matter:

- Advantages to forming an LLC in Delaware as compared to forming it in New Jersey;
- The disadvantages of not having a written limited liability company agreement for a NJ LLC;
- What tax factors should be considered when forming an LLC;
- How can allocations, distributions and liquidation be addressed in a limited liability company agreement;
- What are the factors to consider when drafting or negotiating member, manager, board, and minority member rights for a limited liability company agreement;
- What are prudent approaches for members to separate from a limited liability company;
- For limited liability companies taxed as partnerships, how can the company issue profit interests;
- When should a limited liability company seek professional advice about compliance with the Corporate Transparency Act?
- Answers to your questions.
