Shareholder Tracy A. Armstrong to Moderate and Present at NJSBA Deposition College 2026

04/28/26

Tracy A. Armstrong will moderate and present at the New Jersey State Bar Association's Deposition College 2026, a comprehensive, skills-focused program designed to elevate deposition practice for litigators at all stages of their careers.

Deposition College offers an in-depth, practical exploration of deposition strategy and execution, blending substantive instruction with real-world techniques. The program emphasizes preparation, questioning styles, witness control, objection practice, and ethical considerations, while addressing how depositions shape case strategy from discovery through trial.

This immersive program provides attendees with actionable insights and hands-on guidance from experienced litigators, making it an essential training opportunity for attorneys seeking to sharpen their advocacy skills.

NJ CLE information: This program has been approved by the Board on Continuing Legal Education of the Supreme Court of New Jersey for 6.7 hours of total CLE credit (Full Credits Available: NJ Civil Trial Attorney Credit: 6.7, NJ General: 6.7).
