2026 Labor and Employment Summer Institute

Thursday, August 13, 2026

Wilentz Counsel Stephanie D. Gironda will present at the New Jersey State Bar Association's (NJSBA) 2026 Labor and Employment Summer Institute, a comprehensive annual program bringing together leading employment and labor law practitioners for in-depth discussion of critical practice areas and practical strategies.

Stephanie is slated to speak specifically on equal pay laws, and detailed program materials will be forthcoming. The program will feature insights from experienced attorneys addressing key developments and emerging trends in labor and employment law, with a focus on practical guidance for navigating complex workplace matters and achieving effective results for clients. Attendees will benefit from real-world perspectives shared by seasoned practitioners across the field.

In addition, the program will be offered as a live webcast and provides up to 5.5 continuing legal education credits.
