

Brett R. Harris to Speak at NJSBA Summer Conference Panel on the "Sandwich Generation"

Thursday, August 20, 2026

Wilentz Shareholder Brett R. Harris will serve as a panelist at the New Jersey State Bar Association (NJSBA) and NJICLE Summer Conference session, The Sandwich Generation Practicing Law: How to Care for Yourself and Your Clients While Caring for Others.

This informative program will examine the unique challenges attorneys face while balancing the demands of a legal career with the responsibilities of caring for loved ones. The panel will discuss practical approaches to maintaining personal well-being, managing professional obligations, and effectively supporting clients who may be navigating similar caregiving challenges.

Drawing from her own experiences as a shareholder at the law firm while raising two children with chronic illnesses, Brett will share insights on resilience, work-life integration, self-care, and the realities of managing a successful legal practice while serving as a caregiver. Her perspective will offer meaningful guidance for attorneys seeking to balance their personal and professional responsibilities while continuing to provide exceptional client service.
