Tony Solimine to Participate in Panel Discussions at New Jersey School Boards Association's Workshop 2026

Tuesday, October 20, 2026 to Wednesday, October 21, 2026

Tony Solimine, Shareholder and Co-chair of the Wilentz Public Finance team, will present during two panel discussions at the New Jersey School Boards Association's Workshop 2026 in Atlantic City.

On Tuesday, October 20, Mr. Solimine will speak on the panel, "Winning Budgets: From Vision, to Vote, to Victory." The session will explore how school leaders can translate educational goals into capital projects and budget plans that earn public support. Attendees will gain strategies for developing fundable projects aligned with district priorities, maintaining cost control, and building a clear public narrative that strengthens community trust. The panel will be held from 1:00 PM to 2:00 PM at the Atlantic City Convention Center.

On Wednesday, October 21, Mr. Solimine will join the panel titled "A Clear Path Through Facility Improvements," which will focus on the complexities of the facility improvement process and provide strategies on how to navigate it. Attendees will learn to navigate facility improvements by strengthening planning, securing funding, streamlining approvals, and reducing costs. The panel will be held from 9:00 AM to 10:00 AM at the Atlantic City Convention Center.

The New Jersey School Boards Association's Workshop 2026 brings together school leaders from across the state for educational insights, practical strategies, and collaborative opportunities. For more information, please visit: NJSBA Workshop 2026 | Find Sessions
