

Andrew J. DeMaio to Present at NJSBA 17th Annual Probate Symposium

Thursday, October 29, 2026

Wilentz Of Counsel Andrew J. DeMaio, Esq. will serve as a presenter at the 17th Annual Probate Symposium, hosted by the New Jersey State Bar Association at the New Jersey Law Center in New Brunswick and online. The program brings together leading trust and estate practitioners to examine recent developments in probate law, including changes in state and federal statutes, case law, and court policies affecting the administration of estates and trusts.

As part of the symposium faculty, Andrew will join fellow presenters in discussing evolving probate matters and the practical implications of legislative, judicial, and policy developments impacting trust and estate practitioners. The program will provide strategies for navigating complex probate issues, avoiding common pitfalls, and adapting to changes affecting estate administration and litigation.

Presented in cooperation with the NJSBA Real Property, Trust & Estate Law Section, the symposium is designed to provide attorneys with timely updates and practical guidance for managing probate and estate matters. Attendees may earn up to 6.7 NJ CLE credits.

For more information and to register, please visit the event page.

Practice

- Trusts & Estates