Michael F. Schaff to Co-Moderate, Keith Hovey to Present at 2026 NJSBA Annual Health Law Symposium

Thursday, November 5, 2026

Wilentz Shareholder Michael F. Schaff will serve as Co-Moderator of the New Jersey State Bar Association's 2026 Annual Health Law Symposium, which this year will be a virtual program bringing together leading health law practitioners and industry professionals for discussions on significant legal, regulatory, and policy developments affecting the healthcare sector.

As part of the program, Wilentz Counsel Keith Hovey will present "HIPAA Business Associate Agreements Trends and Negotiation Points to Consider," offering practical insights into emerging trends, key negotiation issues, and important considerations for healthcare providers and organizations navigating business associate relationships.

The symposium will also feature presentations on recent health law cases, ethics updates, regulatory developments, and federal health policy changes, providing attendees with a comprehensive review of the issues shaping today's healthcare landscape.
