

Stephanie D. Gironda to Present at NJSBA DEI Conference 2026

Wednesday, November 18, 2026

Wilentz Counsel Stephanie D. Gironda will serve as a presenter at the New Jersey State Bar Association's DEI Conference 2026, taking place at the New Jersey Law Center in New Brunswick and online. The program brings together legal professionals and thought leaders to examine recent developments affecting diversity, equity, and inclusion initiatives across higher education, corporate America, law firms, and government organizations.

As part of the conference faculty, Stephanie will join fellow presenters in discussing the evolving legal and professional landscape surrounding DEI efforts and the challenges and opportunities facing organizations as they navigate changing laws, policies, and workplace expectations.

The conference is designed to provide New Jersey attorneys with timely insights into issues impacting diversity, equity, and inclusion, while offering practical perspectives on developments affecting employers, educational institutions, and public sector organizations. Attendees may earn up to three CLE credits in Diversity.
