

Anne Babineau Receives Urban Land Institute's "2013 Legacy Award"

02/25/13

Anne Babineau will receive the Urban Land Institute of Northern New Jersey's 2013 Legacy Award.

Anne Babineau leads the firm's Redevelopment Practice. She advises clients on redevelopment plans, designation of redevelopment areas, property acquisitions, and government approvals.

The ULI-NNJ 2013 Legacy Awards recognize and honor the professional legacies of those individuals and organizations whose contributions to the development of New Jersey's cities most closely mirror ULI's mission. Awardees were selected by the District Council's Executive Committee as those who have best advanced ULI's mission over the past several decades and have shaped our communities and have improved the quality of land use within the State. The award will be presented on March 7, 2013 at the Liberty House Restaurant in Jersey City, NJ.

Other 2013 Award recipients include: Hon. Brendan Byrne; The New Jersey Economic Development Authority; J. Robert Hillier; Johnson & Johnson; Langan Engineering & Environmental Services; Prudential and Regional Plan Association.
