

Amanda M. Curley Joins Wilentz as an Associate on the Land Use Team

01/02/19

Wilentz, Goldman & Spitzer, P.A. is pleased to announce that Amanda M. Curley has joined the firm as an associate on its Land Use team. Ms. Curley's practice focuses on all aspects of land use and redevelopment and in related litigation.

Ms. Curley represents developers and real estate owners in real estate and redevelopment projects in all aspects of land use, including site plans, preparing land use applications, and appearing before municipal boards and handling resolutions of approval.

Ms. Curley clerked for the Honorable Maureen B. Mantineo in the Superior Court of New Jersey. She earned her law degree at Rutgers Law School - Newark in 2012, where she served as Managing Editor of the Rutgers Business Law Review. She earned her undergraduate degree at Lafayette College in 2009. She is admitted to practice in New Jersey.

Attorney

- Amanda M. Curley

Practices

- Land Use
- Redevelopment