

Wilentz Welcomes Three New Attorneys

04/15/24

Wilentz, Goldman & Spitzer, P.A. is pleased to welcome John Barry, Meghan Chrisner-Keefe, and Daniel Lipner.

John D. Barry is joining the Woodbridge office as Counsel on the Health Law and Corporate practice groups. Prior to joining Wilentz, Goldman & Spitzer, P.A., John worked at a national law firm focused on healthcare law. He earned his law degree from Seton Hall University School of Law while concentrating in Health Law, and received the ABA Health Law Award for Excellence. He graduated from the University of Pennsylvania with B.A.

Meghan Chrisner-Keefe is joining the Red Bank office as Counsel on the Firm's Employment Law Team. Meghan focuses her practice on assisting both employees and employers in navigating nuanced employment situations. Prior to joining Wilentz, Meghan practiced at a boutique employment litigation firm where she gained an in-depth understanding of employment law. She earned her J.D. from Seton Hall University School of Law and received her B.S. from Syracuse University's Newhouse School of Public Communications.

Daniel Lipner is joining the New York office as an associate in the Mass Tort/Class Action group, focusing his practice on asbestos and mesothelioma, personal injury, and products liability litigation. Before joining Wilentz, Mr. Lipner was an associate at a law firm where he handled personal injury and negligence cases. He earned his J.D. from the Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law.

Attorneys

- John D. Barry
- Meghan Chrisner-Keefe
- Daniel C. Lipner

Practices

- Employment Law
- Asbestos & Mesothelioma
- Class Action
- Health Law