Darren Gelber Appointed to Monmouth County Criminal Practice Committee

08/13/24

We are excited to announce that Darren Gelber has been appointed to a three-year term on the Monmouth County Criminal Practice Committee. The Monmouth County Criminal Practice Committee is committed to upholding the honor of the legal profession, fostering positive relationships among Bar members, and enhancing the practice of law within the county. Darren's appointment to this committee highlights his commitment to these goals.

Darren has been a long serving member of the Middlesex County Criminal Practice Committee, and presently serves as Chair of the New Jersey State Bar Association's Criminal practice Committee.
