Tracy Armstrong Appointed to the Labor & Employment Law Committee of the Monmouth Bar Association

08/14/24

We are thrilled to announce that Tracy Armstrong has been appointed to the Labor & Employment Law Committee of the Monmouth Bar Association for the 2024-2025 term. The Labor & Employment Law Committee is dedicated to advancing the practice of labor and employment law, promoting ethical standards, and fostering collaboration among legal professionals in the region.

Tracy has a strong background in labor and employment law, having previously served on various committees and organizations focused on these areas. Her appointment reflects her ongoing commitment to improving legal practices and supporting her peers in the Monmouth Bar Association.
