

For Most Family Businesses, Success or Failure is All or Mostly "Relative(s)"

11/02/18

In this Commerce Magazine special report, Brett Harris joins several industry professionals in sharing legal and management best practices that New Jersey-based family businesses should consider in order to be successful. Ms. Harris reflects on the importance of good governance and how outside perspectives can increase objectivity in decision-making.

The article "For Most Family Businesses, Success or Failure is All or Mostly Relative(s)" was originally published in the October 2018 Issue of Commerce Magazine and is reprinted here with permission.

Attorney

- Brett R. Harris

Practice

- Corporate