Law360 Spotlights Roberto J. Benites' Return to Wilentz as Counsel

03/31/26

Wilentz, Goldman & Spitzer, P.A. was featured in an article by Law360 highlighting the firm's addition of Counsel Roberto J. Benites.

The article spotlights Mr. Benites' return to Wilentz and the more than 25 years of experience he brings representing injured workers in a wide range of workers' compensation matters. Mr. Benites previously spent over two decades with the firm and noted that returning feels like "he's never left," underscoring his strong connection to the firm and its team.

The piece also highlights Mr. Benites' extensive experience handling cases involving permanent disability benefits, dependency claims, and motions for medical and temporary disability benefits. His experience in appearing before judges in Middlesex County and his longstanding presence in the region are noted as key advantages for efficiently navigating cases and representing clients injured while working.

Additionally, the article emphasizes Mr. Benites' ability to serve Spanish-speaking clients, reflecting his commitment to ensuring accessible, high-quality legal representation for a diverse client base.
