

WILENTZ

—ATTORNEYS AT LAW—

WILENTZ, GOLDMAN & SPITZER, P.A.

State Proposal Raises Stakes for Not Cooperating With License Board Investigations

08/18/26

New Jersey Law Journal

In an interview with the New Jersey Law Journal, Darren M. Gelber discusses a proposal from the New Jersey Attorney General's Office and Division of Consumer Affairs that would revise the rules governing how professionals must cooperate with licensing board investigations. The proposed changes could create additional challenges for professionals involved in matters involving confidentiality agreements or parallel criminal investigations.

Read more: State Proposal Raises Stakes for Not Cooperating With License Board Investigations

Attorney

- Darren M. Gelber