Health Care and the Business of Cannabis: Legal Questions and Answers

03/03/21

In the first edition of "Health Care and the Business of Cannabis: Legal Questions and Answers," a first-of-its-kind project spearheaded by Wilentz healthcare and corporate attorney Lisa Gora, the American Health Law Association offers insight on the interplay between medical marijuana and the health care industry, as well as guidance for providing informed counsel to hospitals, physicians and other healthcare practitioners on business opportunities surrounding medicinal marijuana and its by-products.

Michael F. Schaff, Wilentz Health Law and Corporate Co-Chair, served as Concept Editor for this book.
