Narrow Amendment to Statute of Limitations May Have Wide Implications for Some Developers

05/04/22

Wilentz construction law attorneys Donald E. Taylor and Daniel J. Kluska's article in the New Jersey Law Journal reviews Senate Bill 396, signed into law in January 2022 by Governor Phil Murphy, which may have some unintended consequences as the new law extends the time for claims by planned real estate development associations against real estate developers, under certain circumstances.
