Get Ready to Rumble: Fourth Round Affordable Housing is Around the Corner

03/20/24

New Jersey is facing a severe affordable housing shortage, with major deficits in rental units for low-income residents. To address the crisis, the State Legislature has passed Bill A4, aiming to reform the affordable housing process. Shareholder and Co-chair of the Land Use team, Donna M. Jennings and Anthony J. Zarillo III, Associate on the Land Use team at Wilentz, Goldman & Spitzer, P.A., discuss The Fourth Round of affordable housing obligations which will bring significant changes for municipalities statewide.
