Wilentz Shareholders Jason J. Krisza, Grace D. Mack, and Michael F. Schaff Contribute to the American Health Law Association's Latest Publication

11/10/25

Wilentz Shareholders Jason J. Krisza, Grace D. Mack, and Michael F. Schaff contributed to the American Health Law Association's (AHLA) newly released publication, Health Care Fraud Law: A 50 State Survey, Second Edition.

This comprehensive resource provides an in-depth examination of health care fraud laws across all 50 states, offering practical insights into the statutes, regulations, and enforcement trends that shape compliance obligations for providers and organizations nationwide.

Through their contributions, Mr. Krisza, Ms. Mack, and Mr. Schaff draw on their experience advising healthcare clients to help readers navigate the complex and evolving legal landscape of fraud and abuse prevention.
