Darren M. Gelber Serves as Special Co-Editor of New Jersey Lawyer Magazine Issue on Judicial Independence

02/13/26

Wilentz shareholder Darren M. Gelber served as a special co-editor of the February 2026 edition of New Jersey Lawyer Magazine, an issue dedicated to Judicial Independence in a Complex Legal Landscape.

The edition explores the evolving challenges confronting judicial independence, including institutional pressures, public trust in the courts, and the role of the legal profession in safeguarding the rule of law. Through contributions from members of the bench and bar, the issue offers a thoughtful analysis of the judiciary's essential function within a constitutional system.

Mr. Gelber's involvement as a special co-editor and contributor to the publication reflects his commitment to advancing informed discussion on issues fundamental to the administration of justice in New Jersey and beyond.
