Mr. Kole is an experienced business litigator and trial lawyer, having handled commercial disputes on behalf of public and private companies in New Jersey and across the nation, including matters venued in California, Delaware, Florida, Illinois, Maryland, New York, Pennsylvania, and Texas. Furthermore, he has established and maintained relationships with each of his business clients, as well as with the New Jersey state and federal judiciary due to his courtroom experience and leadership positions within the Federal Bar Association and New Jersey Bar Associations.

Mr. Kole is a Past President of the Association of the Federal Bar of the State of New Jersey. He is a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers, one of the premier legal associations in North America, past chair of its State Committee, and chair of its Heritage Committee. He is also a Fellow of the American Bar Foundation. Mr. Kole firmly believes that it is not enough to be a good lawyer, but that a commitment to elevating the practice of law and dedication to the legal community is his responsibility. That sense of obligation to his profession, his colleagues and the firm directly translates to the level of service each of his clients receives.

Mr. Kole has been recognized in his field by Chambers USA since 2016. In addition, Mr. Kole has been included in the Best Lawyers in America list since 2006 and the New Jersey Super Lawyers list since its inception in 2005.

His experience as a litigator and his commitment to the New Jersey legal community has made Mr. Kole a sought-after lecturer on federal and appellate practice, restrictive covenant, trade secret litigation, and shareholder disputes. He has conducted and moderated numerous seminars for the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education.

Before joining the firm, Mr. Kole was a judicial intern to the Honorable Leonard I. Garth, U.S. Court of Appeals, Third Circuit, and to the Honorable Robert E.
