Natalie Moszczynski is an Associate for the Corporate, Health Law, and Cannabis Law groups at Wilentz, Goldman & Spitzer, P.A., focusing on corporate, transactional, and regulatory matters for physicians and healthcare institutions, and cannabis transactions and licensure.

In 2020, Natalie served as an intern for the Honorable Stephen L. Petrillo in the Civil Division of the Superior Court of New Jersey. She earned her law degree from Rutgers Law School, where she served as managing editor for The Rutgers Law Record.

While in law school, Natalie interned for Wilentz, and two other firms, where she assisted in trial preparation, transactions, legal research, and writing. Natalie graduated from Duke University with a B.A. in 2018.

*Cannabis Law Disclaimer: Per federal law, under the Controlled Substances Act, marijuana is categorized as a Schedule I controlled substance. Possession, use, distribution, and/or sale of cannabis is a Federal crime and is subject to related Federal policy, regardless of any state law that may authorize certain marijuana activity. Compliance with state marijuana law does not equal compliance with federal law. Legal advice provided by Wilentz, Goldman & Spitzer, P.A. is designed to counsel clients regarding the validity, scope, meaning, and application of existing and/or proposed cannabis law. Wilentz, Goldman & Spitzer, P.A. will not provide guidance or assistance in circumventing or violating Federal or state cannabis law or policy, and any advice provided by Wilentz, Goldman & Spitzer, P.A. should not be construed as such.
