

Other Specialized Litigation Matters

At Wilentz, we provide a highly qualified criminal defense team with a long history of success in managing cases that arise from circumstances in nearly every single aspect of criminal practice. Our team is led by a certified criminal trial attorney and includes former assistant county prosecutors and deputy attorneys general who have distinguished themselves in difficult and highly publicized cases. We have extensive experience in federal, state, municipal, and administrative courts and are prepared to provide legal representation in various specialized areas, including:

- Employment Disciplinary Hearings
- Civil Rights Litigation
- Administrative Agency and Professional Licensing Litigation
- Liquor License Law and Hearings
- Motor Vehicle Commission Matters
- Megan's Law Litigation
- Parole Planning, Revocation and Appeals

To discuss your particular matter with one of our attorneys, please contact our office.

To speak with an attorney about your legal options, please call: 732-855-6100.