

Did You Know? New Jersey Smoking Law Prohibits Discrimination

04/09/18

In 2006, New Jersey banned smoking in indoor public spaces, including the workplace. In 2010, New Jersey's Smoke-Free Air Act was amended to also ban e-cigarettes. But DID YOU KNOW that New Jersey Smoking Law prohibits employers from discriminating against an employee because he does or does not: smoke and/or uses tobacco products.

Attorney

- Tracy Armstrong