Christine A. Dolan is Counsel on the Family Law team at Wilentz, Goldman & Spitzer, P.A. As a seasoned family law attorney with more than 25 years of litigation experience, she represents clients in divorce, child custody and parenting time disputes, child support matters, domestic violence proceedings, and post-judgment family law litigation. Clients rely on Christine's practical guidance, extensive courtroom experience, and strong advocacy to help them navigate complex family matters and pursue favorable outcomes.

Throughout her career, Christine has represented individuals in a broad range of family law matters, including contested divorces, custody disputes, support applications, relocation matters, and domestic violence cases. She has extensive experience appearing in court for trials, hearings, motion practice, settlement conferences, and mediations.

Prior to joining Wilentz, Goldman & Spitzer, P.A., Christine held senior litigation positions in New Jersey and Colorado, where she managed complex matrimonial and family law matters from inception through resolution. Earlier in her career, she served as an attorney with the Administration for Children's Services in New York City, prosecuting child abuse and neglect matters in Family Court and handling a significant caseload involving custody, domestic violence, and child welfare issues.

Christine also gained litigation experience with the New York State Attorney General's Office and the Westchester County District Attorney's Office. She has been recognized for her commitment to client service and litigation excellence, receiving both the Cordell Law Top Performing Attorney and Cordell Law Top Regional Attorney awards.
