Ms. Kelly A. Erhardt-Wojie is a shareholder at Wilentz, Goldman & Spitzer, P.A., serving as co-chair of the firm's Banking and Creditors' Rights groups and a member of the Management Committee. For over 25 years, she has focused her practice in banking and real estate transactions. With respect to her banking practice, Ms. Erhardt-Wojie represents several lending institutions in a broad range of complex commercial and construction transactions, mainly in New York and New Jersey, involving the multi-family, mixed-use, and healthcare space, as well as loan restructuring. Ms. Erhardt-Wojie's real estate practice includes representing private developers and businesses in contract negotiations, acquisition, financing, leasing, and sales.

Prior to joining Wilentz in 2000, Ms. Erhardt-Wojie practiced in Monmouth County where she focused on title insurance litigation and all aspects of real estate transactions including acquisitions, financing, leasing, and sale.

Ms. Erhardt-Wojie is committed to maintaining a very active presence in various Bar Associations, as well as her community and her family. She is a member of the New Jersey State, New York State, Middlesex County, Monmouth County, and American Bar Associations, where she participates in the Real Estate, Land Use, and Banking Sections. She is also a member of the Commercial Lending Committee of the New Jersey Bankers Association and has lectured on several occasions on the topic of Commercial Real Estate Financing. She is also involved in the firm's associate mentorship program.

Ms. Erhardt-Wojie has been ranked in the Best Lawyers in America 2027 list for Real Estate Law.

Best Lawyers in America® (<https://www.bestlawyers.com/methodology>) is published by Best Lawyers.
